

HSNY 2012 ITINERARY

- July 28: We're here! Getting oriented at the Y, dinner at Jackson Hole Diner
July 29: Shakespeare in the Park, waiting on line (a great NYC tradition!) and the play
July 30: Lessons begin. St. Thomas Church, St. Patrick Cathedral and SoHo
July 31: Getting oriented in NYC, Museum of the City of New York, walk down 5th Avenue, Met Rooftop with its exhibit of contemporary sculptures
August 1: Old New York: City Hall, Ground Zero, St. Paul's Chapel, Staten Island
August 2: The Met – Highlights tour, 20th Century Art, and coffee at the Met Rooftop
August 3: Noguchi Museum, Socrates Sculpture Park, Chamber music in Central Park
August 4: Guided tour of Central Park, Jewish Museum
August 5: Harlem Gospel, New York Historical Society
August 6: NY's Museum Mile (1): Guggenheim Museum
August 7: NY's Museum Mile (2): Metropolitan Museum: American Wing
August 8: Queens Museum: 1964 World Fair Unisphere. (optional): Baseball game at Shea Stadium
August 9: Museum of Modern Art (MoMA!), experimental concert at the MoMA
August 10: Whitney Museum, Grand Central Station Tour
August 11: HSNY goes to PS1 (experimental annex of MOMA)
August 12: Humanities Spring goes to the beach: Fire Island, a lighthouse and the ocean! (optional)
August 13: Empire State Building
August 14: NY Bookstores (Strand, Barnes & Noble), the Flatiron Building and the High Line
August 15: Natural History Museum, Lincoln Center Out-of-Doors Festival
August 16: Circle Line Harbor Lights Cruise
August 17: ice-cream in China Town, Good-bye walk across the Brooklyn Bridge at night, Dinner at Stardust Diner with its singing waiters
August 18: Good-bye NYC! Departure
August 18th -August 26th: Extra 8 days at the Y